ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE CROSS BEARER

Coming to the Auditorium Theatre-Spectacular Marvel With Montague Love as the Star Will Be Seen on Thursday, Friday, Saturday.

The Cross Bearer, the speciacularly marvelous World-Picture Brady-Mades is coming to the Auditorium theatre temerrow with popular Montague Love as the star. Mr. Love appears in the most effective characterization in the most effective characterization. in which he has yet been seen. He is cast in the role of Cardinal Mercier, the world-famous Belgian prelate who so sturdily has stood up against the aggressions and oppressions of the German invaders.

The story is one of the most thrill-ng and intensely interesting concelv-The Cross Bearer is one of the most forceful and interesting pic-tures that has been turned out in a long time. It is one of the most brilstaged pictures ever projectthe screen. Altogether it is

No lover of big motion pictures should miss William Pox's 1918 version of Hall Caine's The Bondman, which will be shown for the last time today at the Auditorium theatre. Wil liam Farnum, the star was never bet-ter, and the story lends itself to his wonderful ability.

BREED THEATRE

Emily Stevens, in the Great Broadway Success, A Man's World, Feature For Today and Thursday.

A Man's World, a Metro feature production, starring Emily Stevens, is the feature attraction at the Breed theatre today and Thursday. In offering this production the manage-ment is paying the patrons a hish compliment as it is a picture of the better sert full of action and dramatic better sert full of action and dramatic intensity and provides an unusually strong part for the star. It was written as a play by Rachel Crothers and presented on the stage with Mary Mannering as the star and has been adapted for the action for Miss Stevens' use by June Mathis. The picture presents many vital human problems and surprises and has an ending that a entirely appropriate to the great and surprises and the an ending that is entirely appropriate to the great problems discussed in the play.

Pearl White is also seen in The House of Hate and Chester Conklin in a new Mack Sennett comedy titled it Pays to Exercise, and the Burton Holmes travelogue news makes up the remainder of the bill for today and Thursday. Thursday.

Davis Theatre Today.

The law of heredity forms the basis of the story of The Danger Mark, the new 6-part Arternat photoplay in which Elsie Ferguson is seen at the Davis theatre today. The theme is an unusual one and deals with the subject of intemperance in its most

The heroine of The Danger Mark, created by Robert W. Chambers, author of many "best sellers," is a young woman who has inherited a taste for liquor from a dissipated ancestor. She indulges this craving for stimulants secretly by eating lumps of sugar steeped in cologue. She drinks cham-pagne at a social gathering and be-comes somewhat intoxicated, a condition recognized by the man who loves a her, but which escapes the attention of others. He cares for her and gives her diamond ring through the agency for liquor and regains herself Other features are Alma Rubens in Madam Sphinx, a very absorbing five-part Triangle detective story and the Official Allied Nations War Review, distributed by the U. S. government, showing the American boys fighting side by side with their allies against the Hun. Entire change of program
